Katharine Hyre

Fort Myers - Fort Myers - On March 22, 2021, an enthusiastic Buckeye fan, loving wife, and devoted mother, Katharine (Kathie) Hyre, was welcomed into God's Kingdom. Kathie was born

Katharine Mason Snyder on January 24, 1929, in Piqua, Ohio. She was the only child of Andrew and Katharine Snyder, and grew up in Piqua, where she showed early signs of interest in sports, entertaining, and music which carried throughout her entire life. As a wife of a career Air Force pilot, she moved 17 times, and raised her family in five countries and five different states.

Kathie is survived by her husband Fred, her three sons, David (Barbara), Eric, and Randal (Anne), her three grandchildren, Katharine, Asher, Elena, and countless friends worldwide. A Memorial Service has been planned for 1pm April 10, 2021, at the Brandywine Room, 1293 Medinah Drive, Ft. Myers (for Covid social distancing reason we are requesting an RSVP).

A private interment service is planned. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to the Ohio State University chapter of Alpha Xi Delta (https://psi-alphaxidelta.2stayconnected.com/donate-here) or to the Brandywine Memorial Garden Fund (please make checks payable to the Brandywine Activities Committee).
